On September 27 and 28, the Bibliothèque du Vieux-Saint-Laurent celebrated its 60th anniversary in a festive, community-focused atmosphere during the Journées de la culture.

Under the theme “Anchored in the community” (“Enrée dans la communauté”), it welcomed hundreds of visitors throughout the weekend to enjoy a rich and varied program featuring exhibitions, workshops, a book sale and more. Highlights included the official unveiling of the mural and artistic trail “Histoires sous l’arc-en-ciel,” created by Cara Carmina, as well as a talk by Michel Rabagliati, author of the well-known Paul comic book series.

Message from the Mayor

Dear fellow citizens of Saint-Laurent,

Several significant milestones in the history of Saint-Laurent have taken place in recent months. As you know, we opened the Year 2000 time capsule in August. This memorable event allowed us to discover several items that bear witness to the past of our wonderful community. It also inspired us to relaunch the initiative by sealing a new time capsule in preparation for Saint-Laurent's 150th anniversary in 2043 and by inviting residents to contribute reflections from our era.

Speaking of memorable events, last September, the Bibliothèque du Vieux-Saint-Laurent celebrated its 60th anniversary. This celebration marked the success of this Saint-Laurent institution, created thanks to the initiative of the community. We wish it another 60 years of success!

It was also with great pride that the members of Saint-Laurent Council and I participated in the opening of the Deux-Montagnes branch of the REM. With four stations in Saint-Laurent, this underscores our strategic location at the heart of the city and opens major possibilities for our community.

It represents the culmination of a project we have supported for many years and that has been particularly meaningful to us—much like the bylaw amendment on noisy vehicles adopted by the new Saint-Laurent Council at its first meeting. We are proud to send the message that, even though Saint-Laurent is located at the hub of major communication routes and is home to one of the most important technological parks in Canada, it remains first and foremost a borough focused on families.

All of this has been made possible thanks to the renewed confidence the Saint-Laurent community has placed in us, and we thank you for it. With this support, we can continue to move forward with our major projects and work to make Saint-Laurent a prosperous and flourishing community.

I would also like to extend our best wishes for the Holidays and the New Year.

The Mayor of Saint-Laurent,

Alan DeSousa, FCPA

The REM has taken off!

On November 14, a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the Station Bois-Franc, attended by members of Saint-Laurent Council, marked the official opening of the Deux-Montagnes branch of the Réseau express métropolitain (REM).

With the four Saint-Laurent stations along this branch, the REM ushers in a new era, placing the borough at the heart of the network. Residents can now reach downtown in just a few minutes, and even travel to the North and South shores, all in the comfort of a modern and sustainable mode of transit.

The Borough Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse District, Jacques Cohen, the City Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse District, Vana Nazarian, the Borough Councillor for Norman-McLaren District, Annie Gagnier, and the City Councillor for Norman-McLaren District, Aref Salem, accompany the Mayor of Saint-Laurent, Alan DeSousa, for the official ribbon-cutting ceremony.

With the opening of the Deux-Montagnes branch, the REM stops in Saint-Laurent are the Bois-Franc, Du Ruisseau, Montpellier and Côte-de-Liesse stations. A fifth station, Marie-Curie, is expected to open in the industrial sector in 2027 with the commissioning of the YUL-Aéroport-Montréal-Trudeau branch.

Noise pollution: new limits for vehicles in Saint-Laurent

The tranquility enjoyed by Saint-Laurent residents is now better protected thanks to the amendment of Bylaw 1140-14 on nuisances, adopted by the Borough Council on November 25. This measure specifies noise limits for vehicles, including passenger cars as well as commercial and heavy vehicles.

“I am proud to announce this amendment to the nuisance bylaw, as it delivers on an important commitment for our administration: providing a peaceful environment for our citizens. As Saint-Laurent is a borough with a strong family vocation, preserving quality of life in our neighbourhoods is essential,” stated Mayor Alan DeSousa.

The following are now prohibited:

- Rattling vehicle parts or loose items on vehicles
- Abusive use of audible warning devices
- Excessive noise from a radio or other broadcasting device
- Squealing tires
- Noise from an inefficient exhaust system
- Excessive engine revving when starting, stopping, or during repeated accelerations

The entire community is invited to cooperate to reduce excessive noise and help preserve our quality of life.

A month dedicated to photography, with Grand Angle

Led by the team from the Direction de la culture, des sports, des loisirs et du développement social, the first edition of the thematic month dedicated to photography in October – the Grand Angle event – offered a wide range of activities on the theme of photography: exhibitions, creative workshops, screenings, and activities. Presented in the libraries, at the Centre d'exposition Lethbridge, as well as in several public spaces in Saint-Laurent, this initiative aimed to democratize the practice of photography and to highlight local talent, while fostering connections between artists and the community.

One of the exhibitions, À partir du titre, is still on display. Until April 30, residents are invited to discover this original and contemplative artistic experience. The result of a collaboration between Vieux-Saint-Laurent, quartier culturel, and the Association des photographes de Saint-Laurent, it presents a series of photographs inspired by the titles of literary works. Installed outdoors at Place Rodolphe-Rousseau, the works offer passers-by a poetic pause in the heart of the public space.

À partir du titre was presented for the first time at the Bibliothèque du Vieux-Saint-Laurent as part of its 60th anniversary celebrations. On this occasion, a vernissage was held on September 28, where the City Councillor for Norman-McLaren District, Aref Salem, the director of the Association des photographes de Saint-Laurent, Diane Hamelin-Bourassa, the Mayor of Saint-Laurent, Alan DeSousa, the head of the Division de la culture et des bibliothèques, Virginie Simard-Tozzi, as well as employees from the Section culture congratulated the members of the Association des photographes.

Following its makeover, the Mini-bibliothèque is ready to welcome its young clientele year-round in a more spacious venue. It will open on January 17 according to the following schedule:

Regular schedule:

Friday – 3 to 6 p.m.
Saturday – 1 to 5 p.m.

Summer schedule – June 25 to Labour Day:

Friday – 2 to 5 p.m.
Saturday – 1 to 5 p.m.

REOPENING PARTY

To mark its first day on January 17, the Mini-bibliothèque team will hold a reopening party from 1 to 3 p.m., featuring a variety of activities such as a circus show, face painting, colouring and of course a visit from Laurent, the mascot!

Survey on cultural habits

Culture is at the heart of community life and contributes to the vitality of our borough. To better understand the tastes, practices and expectations of residents, the Maison de la culture Saint-Laurent is launching a survey on local cultural habits.

The responses collected will help guide the development of cultural programming by aligning it with the community's actual needs. Your participation is essential to enhancing cultural life in Saint-Laurent.

One by one, the Mayor of Saint-Laurent, Alan DeSousa, the General Manager of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Saint-Laurent - Mont-Royal, Caroline Casabon, the Executive Director of Centre Bon Courage de Place Benoît, Kadiétou Savadogo, several residents, as well as representatives from local schools and Saint-Laurent staff presented their selection of items.

The unveiling of this new capsule in 2043 will allow future generations to discover the testimonials of our era and once again appreciate the community's evolution—just as with the Year 2000 capsule, which was opened this past August 10.

A 60th anniversary that lived up to expectations

Opened in 1965, the Bibliothèque du Vieux-Saint-Laurent underwent a major interior renovation in 2019 without altering its characteristic 1960s architecture.

In 2024, it recorded a 25% increase in attendance over the previous year, with more than 135,000 visits, 14,600 memberships and nearly 200,000 loans, ranking 18th out of 45 libraries in the Montréal network for total loans.

This success is due in part to numerous local services and a collection of more than 120,000 documents, including several distinctive collections such as vinyl records, zines, sensory kits and games.

A tree to celebrate your new child

Did you welcome a child in 2025? Mark their arrival with a symbolic gesture by registering for the One child, one tree program! Saint-Laurent will honour every birth or adoption by planting a tree in one of its parks.

Since its launch, the program has seen hundreds of trees take root, enriching the borough's green heritage year after year and allowing your little ones to leave their mark on the Saint-Laurent landscape.

The registration period will run from January 16 to February 16. A festive event will bring together participating families in spring 2026.

Le concours Mon jardin écolo remet ses prix

Prizes awarded for the Mon jardin écolo contest

Dans un beau décor créé par son équipe d'horticulture, Saint-Laurent accueillait les lauréats et lauréates de la quatrième édition du concours Mon jardin écolo le 25 septembre dernier à la mairie d'arrondissement.

Cette remise de prix annuelle clôture une démarche qui commence au printemps par la distribution gratuite de plants par l'arrondissement durant le Mois du jardin, en mai. Les Laurentiens et les Laurentiennes sont ensuite invités à inscrire leur jardin au sol ou sur balcon en juillet au concours Mon jardin écolo et à le partager sur les médias sociaux pour la période de vote en août.

En septembre, des prix sont remis pour les aménagements ayant obtenu le plus grand nombre de votes dans chacun des quatre secteurs de collecte de Saint-Laurent. À cela s'ajoutent neuf prix dans les jardins communautaires, qui sont sélectionnés par leurs responsables.

In a beautiful decor created by its horticulture team, Saint-Laurent welcomed the winners of the fourth edition of the Mon jardin écolo contest on September 25 at the borough hall.

This annual awards ceremony is the culmination of a program that starts in the spring with the free distribution of plants by the Arrondissement during Garden month, in May. The people of Saint-Laurent are then invited to register their in-ground or balcony gardens for the Mon Jardin écolo contest in July and to share them on social media during the voting period in August.

In September, prizes are awarded for the gardens that receive the most votes in each of Saint-Laurent's four collection zones. In addition, nine prizes are awarded for the community gardens, with the winners being selected by the garden representatives.

RESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS WITH EIGHT UNITS OR LESS

SAINT-LAURENT, A COMMUNITY COMMITTED TO A GREENER FUTURE

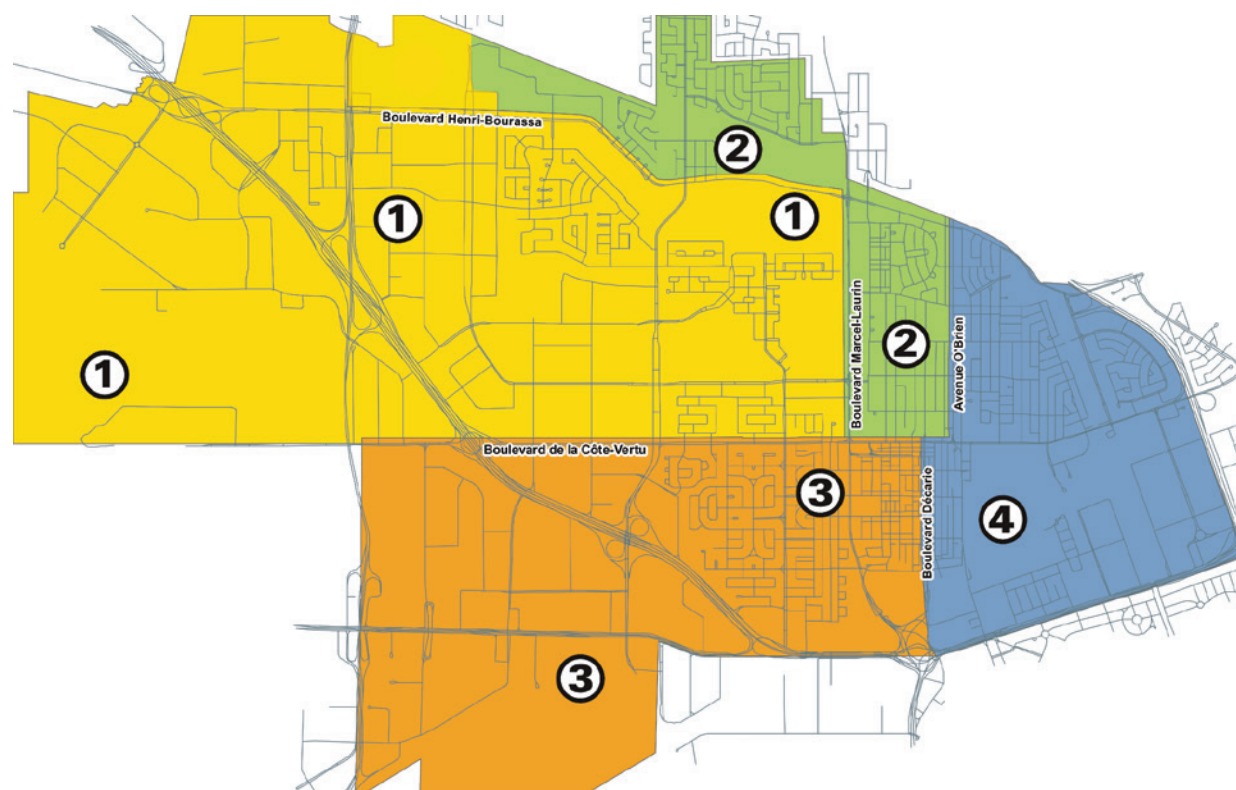

Every year, Saint-Laurent publishes a collection section to support collective efforts to reduce the amount of waste sent to landfill.

Thanks to public support and to the adoption of the measures implemented since 2004, Saint-Laurent has achieved remarkable results in waste management, of which everyone can be proud. Even as the borough's population has grown by 43% over the past two decades, the quantity of waste collected has decreased by 34%.

This trend is expected to continue, as Saint-Laurent completed the implementation of organic waste collection in all residential building categories in fall 2025, and a new simplified recycling collection is making participation even easier.

Efforts will continue in 2026, because building a sustainable future requires maintaining our momentum and strengthening participation across the population. Together, the Saint-Laurent community can go even further!

COLLECTION SECTORS

LEAVES AND TREE BRANCHES

Leaves and tree branches are accepted with the organic waste collection. Branches must be a maximum length of one metre with a diameter of less than 5 cm and must be tied together in bundles. Branches with a diameter of more than 5 cm must be taken to an Écocentre or collected by a private contractor.

Excess leaves and green waste can be placed in paper bags or in sturdy reusable containers.

IMPORTANT
Plastic bags are prohibited even if they are compostable or biodegradable.

Examples: sofas, mattresses and carpets.
- Oversized and non-upholstered
Examples: appliances, furniture, construction, renovation and demolition debris, and oversized cardboard.

Refrigeration and air-conditioning appliances are not accepted with large trash items.

Ask for a pick-up at home:
